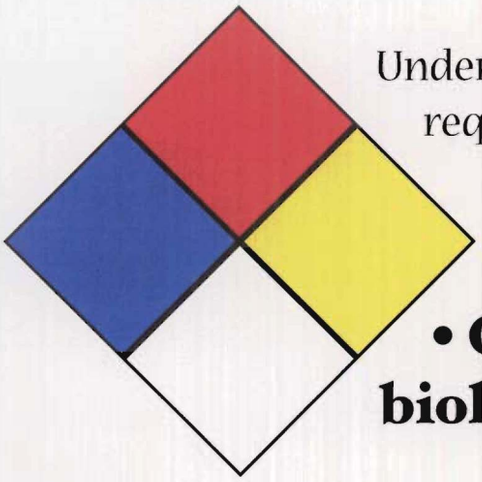
Employees' Right to Know



Under State law, any employee may request information about these materials in the workplace.

- Toxic substances
- Chemical and biological agents

You have a right to know

- The identity of any chemical and biological agents with which you work or to which you may be exposed.
- The hazardous effects of these substances.
- The precautions to observe when handling these substances.
- The procedures to follow when emergency medical treatment is needed in the event of overexposure.

Agricultural Material Safety Data Sheets (MSDS) are available at the Crop Protection Reference website, at www.greenbook.net. Pesticide Re-entry Intervals (REI) are available at http://pestdata.ncsu.edu/cropprofiles/cropprofiles.cfm
